environments.

Structure and Content of the Alabama Department of Corrections Test Questions

- General Aptitude and Basic Skills Tests

Most ADC positions require candidates to complete assessments that measure foundational skills. These include:

- Reading Comprehension: Candidates read passages and answer questions that test their understanding of the material.
- Mathematics: Questions may involve basic arithmetic, percentages, ratios, and sometimes word problems relevant to daily tasks.
- Writing Skills: Short essays or responses to prompts to evaluate clarity, grammar, and communication skills.

Sample Questions:

- Reading Comprehension:

"Read the following scenario and answer the question: A correctional officer notices an inmate acting suspiciously near the visiting area. What should be their immediate course of action?"

(Options may include reporting to a supervisor, approaching the inmate, or ignoring the behavior.)

- Math:

"If a correctional facility has 150 inmates and 5 staff members are assigned per 30 inmates, how many staff members are needed to supervise all inmates?"

- Writing:

"Describe a situation where you had to make a quick decision. How did you handle it, and what was the outcome?"

- Job-Specific Knowledge Questions

Depending on the position?be it correctional officer, administrative staff, or health services?the test questions will vary:

- Correctional Officers: Focus on safety protocols, inmate management, and emergency procedures.
- Administrative Roles: Emphasize understanding of policies, record-keeping, and communication skills.

Sample Correctional Officer Question:

"What is the proper procedure when an inmate refuses to follow a direct order?"

Options might include issuing a warning, calling for backup, or using force (if appropriate and within policy).

- Situational Judgment Tests (SJTs)

These assessments gauge how candidates handle real-life scenarios they may encounter on the job. They present hypothetical situations with multiple response options, asking candidates to select the most appropriate action.

Sample SJT Scenario:

"An inmate approaches you with a complaint about another inmate. How should you respond?"

Options may include investigating the complaint, advising the inmate to speak to a supervisor, or dismissing the concern.
