How can identifying types of phrases improve my understanding of sentence structure? Recognizing different types of phrases (such as noun phrases, verb phrases, or prepositional phrases) helps you understand how sentences are built and how different parts function together to convey meaning. Here, 'The cat' is a noun phrase, 'sleeps' is the verb, and the whole is a simple sentence with phrases embedded within the clause. Why is it important to understand sentence fragments and run-on sentences related to phrases and clauses?

How do coordinating and subordinating conjunctions affect the structure of phrases and clauses?
